SUNNY WEATHER FRIENDS

Lyric by KENDIS & BROCKMAN

I have been spending, I have been lending,
Helping those who were in need,
How they caress'd me, thanked me and bless'd me,
Friends in need are friends indeed,
Now a million things run through my mind,
When misfortune comes to me I find

CHORUS

All I have are sunny weather friends, sunny weather friends,
Sunny weather friends, They're all good fellows while the sun shines,
But when clouds appear, they are nowhere near,
Oh give me a pal like father's only gal,
Who'd share the stormy days without a frown,
But all I have are sunny weather friends,
They leave me when the sun goes down.

2

I may not show it, Well do I know it,
Fate has been real kind to me,
They may regret it, I can't forget it,
Best I got was sympathy,
You've a million friends when you have one,
But when you've a million you have none.
